2013 CAMP MEETING WORKERS

When we think of spring and warmer weather coming to the north country, our thoughts turn to Richland Holiness Camp. What a privilege to have a scriptural Holiness camp meeting to attend! All camp meetings are struggling to survive in this electronic age, but with God's help, we'll continue Richland Holiness Camp Meeting until Jesus comes again. These things come about by prayer, fasting and giving; are you doing your part?

Growing up on a farm in Massillon, OH, Rev. Paul Kaufman attended Stoneboro Camp as a youth, early seeking God. He served in the U.S. Air Force during the Vietnam Era as a staff technologist in radiology. During that time he married Pearl, his wife of 45 years, and they have 2 daughters, as well as a new granddaughter. God's pathway for Rev. Kaufman has led to an interesting, active life. Early he learned the home building/carpentry trade; graduated from Salem Bible College in 1973, Baltimore Hebrew University (M.A. in Jewish Studies), Antietam Biblical Seminary (Doctorate), Lutheran Theological Seminary, Gettysburg (Masters in Sacred Theology), Kent State University (Ph.D. in American Religious History); pastored with the Allegheny Wesleyan Methodist Conf. 21 years; served as academic dean and professor at Allegheny Wesleyan College (wrote 3 accreditation self-studies for ABHE & the Ohio Board of Regents to enable the college to become fully accredited); served as a teaching fellow at Kent State U 4 years; served on a 3 member college accrediting team to a Bible college in San Juan, Puerto Rico, taught at Malone College, Canton, OH 21 years; taught at Ashland Theological Seminary, where he's now in his 25th year on the faculty; taught online classes for Indiana Wesleyan University for 12 years; has been honored with "Professor Emeritus" status at AWC, where he continues teaching part time; commutes by air to Florida to serve as chair of the Hobe Sound Bible College, Bible and Theology Dept.; takes evangelistic meetings; holds seminary lecture courses at Ashland, Detroit, Cleveland and Columbus; preaches regularly at the West Palm Beach Chinese Chapel; and has visited the Holy Land several times in recent years.

Rev. Stevan Manley, of Bedford, IN, graduated from Kansas City College and Bible School. He has served as a pastor 11 years, as a Christian school principal 5 years, as General Superintendent of the Wesleyan Holiness Assoc. of Churches 9 years, President of Evangelistic Faith Missions for 18 years, and entered the field of full time evangelism 6 months ago. Married to his wife, Helen, since 1969, they have one daughter and two sons, as well as ten grandchildren.

A board member of the camp, Rev. and Mrs. John Case return this year as our singers. Their ministry has led them to the Binghamton City Rescue Mission, pastoring for the Wesleyan Church and NY Pilgrim Holiness, 17 years in the Cayman Islands under the Wesleyan Ch. of the Caribbean Conf., and the field of evangelism. John and Betty have 4 surviving children, 13 grandchildren and 1 great-grandchild.

Rev. and Mrs. Ray Cope pastor the Petersburg, VA Allegheny Wesleyan Church, and will be coming to Richland as our Youth Evangelist. Ray and Kassia met and married while students at Allegheny Wesleyan College, where Ray graduated in 2009. They have 2 children, Raymond (5) and Allyson (2).

WHY DO I COME TO RICHLAND CAMP?

“One reason could be because I grew up going to camp every year for as long as I can remember. My parents brought me to camp when I was a child (many years ago) for which I am grateful. Now our children and grandchildren are attending camp.

Another reason is that, because we live close to the campground, it is easier to attend than it would be if we lived a longer distance away.

More importantly, I thank the Lord for the desire that was instilled in me growing up and has stayed with me even now that I am older, to hear good preaching and good singing. It encourages me to keep pressing on and to be faithful to my commitment to serve God.”

Ruth R.

“I’ve been coming to Richland Camp my entire life and over the years those reasons have changed. I can remember the days when 10 days was hardly long enough to rebuild the fort.

Friends and family have always been important to my experience at Richland Camp, but as time passed, camp became a place of fellowship and spiritual renewal. Last camp one of the evangelist asked, “Are you living for time or for eternity?” Richland Camp allows me to put into perspective those things that are most important and will last for eternity.”

Jason B.

“I like coming to camp to meet new friends and to go to church and for playing ball.”

Ethan B.

- 1) “Because Doug and Ethel Canfield were coming here for years, he being treasurer for years.
- 2) Because we heard of the spiritual status of this camp for years and its history!
- 3) Because we are like this camp, Holiness people.
- 4) Because I was asked to be on the camp board a few years ago.
- 5) Because of all the wonderful people here!”

Glenn & Ruth H.

“I enjoy coming to camp for the fellowship with friends and most importantly, to grow in God.”

Lucas W.

“My first reason would be because God invited me to come unto Him, after all my years of doing my own thing. He was so faithful to me to keep after me; I feel I need to be faithful in attending where His presence is, when my church doors aren’t open.

Secondly, it is uplifting, encouraging and pleasant to be among God’s family. I’m so looking forward to heaven and the company of loved ones and friends.

Thirdly, I feel if I stay home I've probably missed hearing or learning some thing more about God and what He expects of me, or the blessing of His presence among us ~ manna from heaven.

I come because of Jesus and what He has done, is doing and will do for me. Praise His name."

Wilma B.

"We started coming here many years ago with our 5 girls. We bought our cottage and Bill worked on it; removing petitions and painting. We came to camp many years, saw all 5 girls take their part in the dining room and dorm. They grew up, left school and went away to college, and then married. Now it's just Dad & Mom that have been coming for a long time now. We've certainly enjoyed the good, close preaching on salvation & holiness. I have received much help coming to this camp, for which I thank the Lord. He has blessed our whole family; most of them are serving the Lord, both children & grandchildren. We have so much to praise the Lord for, & are trusting & praying Him to get the rest in, too."
